

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Charlestown State Park will host "Between the Wars", a 1760s-era living history encampment, May 12 & 13th. Natives, settlers, and traders are needed. Wood, water and toilets provided. Trade scenarios, woods walks and skirmishes are planned to illustrate the conflict between the Native American peoples and the settlers who pressed forward onto their lands. Set-up is Friday, May 11th. For information, contact Gavin Kelly at gavinkelly@sbcglobal.net or 317-328-1440.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Charlestown State Park will host "Legends of Charlestown", a living history timeline event, October 20th and 21st. Wanted: demonstrators from all time periods beginning with Paleo Native Americans up to WWII soldiers, preferably related to the area's local history. Wood, water, and toilets will be provided. If vendors want to set up please contact the park ahead of time. Set up is Friday, October 19th or earlier as needed. For more information contact, Andrea Logsdon at alogsdon@dnr.IN.gov or 812-256-5600.